

Organization of Black Airline Pilots, Inc.

Announcing United Airlines Command Leadership Resource Management Scholarship

United Airlines in partnership with Organization of Black Airline Pilots will accept applications for twenty (20) candidates to attend a United Command Leadership Resource Management course (CLR) at the United Flight Training Center in Denver, Colorado. This course is the equivalent of the Crew Resource Management course (CRM). This scholarship, upon completion, will enable recipients to competitively qualify for pilot jobs at the regional airline level. The selection committee will review your application to determine if you qualify.

UNITED

Minimum Qualifications:

- * Must be a current member of OBAP in good standing and complete a 2008 OBAP Scholarship application
- * Minimum of 250 hours of flight time
- * Commercial license with multi-engine rating
- * First class medical
- * Two letters of recommendations from current OBAP members preferred.

All Scholarship recipients will be responsible for their own transportation, lodging and meal expenses.

All interested applicants must submit a current resume and 2 letters of recommendations of which one must be from a current OBAP member.

Deadline for all applications is COB 15 Jul 2008