

Organization of Black Airline Pilots, Inc.

Announcing United Airlines Flight Dispatch Career Orientation Scholarship

United Airlines in partnership with Organization of Black Airline Pilots will provide two (2) flight dispatch orientation scholarships to highly motivated qualified applicants. Recipients will spend one to two days at United Airlines Operations Center in Chicago, Illinois for an in depth, hands on look into the world of the United flight dispatch department.

Recipients will have the opportunity to interact with United flight dispatchers each day and see first hand what life is like for a major airline dispatcher. United operates one of the largest and most up to date flight dispatch operations at its Operations Center.

UNITED

Minimum Qualifications:

- * High school diploma
- * Associates degree or higher preferred
- * ATP written or Dispatch written exam preferred
- * Aviation Experience of any kind preferred
- * Computer skills required
- * Must be a current OBAP member in good standing

For highly qualified scholarship recipients this opportunity could lead to eligibility to be considered for Flight Dispatch Support positions with consideration for full dispatch licensing opportunities.

All Scholarship recipients will be responsible for their own transportation, lodging and meal expenses.

Deadline for all applications is COB 30 Jun 2008